

Care to make a difference

We've got some great opportunities to become a Health and Wellbeing Assistant in:

- North Lanarkshire
- South Lanarkshire
- Edinburgh
- Fife
- Stirling
- Falkirk and Grangemouth
- West Lothian
- Glasgow

Help support others, through care

If you are compassionate, caring and like to talk, we would love to hear from you. You don't need experience – we'll provide training and help you work towards a care qualification.

Working as a Health and Wellbeing Assistant every day is different. From helping someone with personal care and making breakfast to taking them shopping, or out for the day.

Your job will be to support the people we work for to live their life the way they want.

We offer some great benefits:

- Flexible hours and work patterns to suit you
- Paid £9.50 per hour
- Generous annual leave up to 7.6 weeks and an occupational pension
- Annual contributions towards optical, dental and gym, support for driving lessons, shopping discounts and more.
